Dear Parents,

30th April 2018

I wanted to take the opportunity to say a huge thank you for your support with my London Marathon run. The generous donations and messages of goodwill from yourselves, the children and my work colleagues have been quite overwhelming.

I am pleased to say that despite the weather being incredibly hot, I managed to trundle round in four hours and twenty eight minutes. It was certainly an unforgettable experience!

I also wanted to share what a massive difference your donations have made. Max Appeal is a small charity very close to my heart and turns over less than £100,000 per year. The donations that I have received this year have risen to over £10,000 since my run. The money will have a huge impact on the families and children that the charity work alongside; I can't thank you enough for your generosity.

Yours faithfully,

Joe Farmer
