Collective Worship Policy

Reviewed September 2022

To be reviewed in line with Ocker Hill Academy Policy Guide

1 Aims and purpose

- 1.1 The aims and purpose of collective worship are:
- to provide an opportunity for the children to worship God/gods.
 - to enable children to consider spiritual and moral issues.
 - to enable children to explore their own beliefs.
 - to encourage participation and response.
 - to develop in children a sense of community spirit.
 - to promote a common ethos with shared values and to reinforce positive attitudes.
 - to teach children how to worship.

2 Collective worship

- 2.1 We understand worship to be a special act or occasion whose purpose is to show reverence to God/gods. Collective worship involves all members of the Academy coming together and participating in an assembly. We expect everyone to take an active part in the assembly.
- 2.2 In line with the 1988 Education Reform Act, which states that collective worship should be 'wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character', we normally base our assemblies on the teachings of Christ and traditions of the Christian Church. However, we conduct our assemblies in a manner that is sensitive to the individual faith and beliefs of all members of the Academy.
- 2.3 While most acts of worship in our Academy are Christian, we also hold assemblies that reflect other religious traditions that are represented in the Academy and the wider community.

3 Organisation of collective worship

- 3.1 We hold a daily act of collective worship in our Academy. This forms part of each morning assembly, which is normally a Yr3/4, Yr5/6, or whole-Academy assembly.
- 3.2 We conduct assemblies in a dignified and respectful way. We tell children that assembly time is a period of calm reflection. We regard it as a special time and expect children to behave in an appropriate way. We ask them to be quiet and thoughtful and to listen carefully to the teachings and participate fully in prayer and hymns. We create an appropriate atmosphere by sometimes using objects, picture or words/phrases that act as a focal point for the attention of the children.
- 3.3 The Principal or other members of staff normally conduct assemblies, but sometimes local clergy or other representatives of local religious groups conduct them instead.
- 3.4 We take the themes of our assemblies from the traditions of the Christian faith, and we often reflect the festivals and events of the Christian calendar. Sometimes the themes of our assemblies reflect and build on topics that we teach as part of the Academy curriculum. We plan our assemblies as part of a series of themes well in advance of the day they take place.

3.5 Our assemblies reflect the achievements and learning of the children. We encourage the children to participate in assemblies by showing their work to the other children and raising issues that they have discussed in their classes. Assemblies offer an opportunity to acknowledge and reward children for their achievements both in and out of the Academy. They play an important part in promoting the ethos of the Academy, which is that all children are valued, and all achievements are recognised. Ocker Hill Academy is a successful Academy, and we shall celebrate the successes of all the children in assemblies.

3.6 We welcome governors' attendance at our assemblies at any time.

4 Right of withdrawal

4.1 We expect all children to attend assembly. However, any parent can request permission for their child to be excused from attending religious worship and the Academy will make alternative arrangements for the supervision of the child during the period concerned. This complies with the 1944 Education Act and was restated in the 1988 Education Reform Act.

4.2 The Principal keeps a record of all children who withdraw from collective worship.

5 Monitoring and review

5.1 It is the role of the Foundation Curriculum Leader who has responsibility for religious education and collective worship to monitor the policy and practice of collective worship. The Foundation Curriculum Leader liaises with the Principal before reporting to the governors on religious education and collective worship.
